DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Steele Road Frame house is located on the west side of Steele Road, approximately six-tenths of a mile north of Lentz Road, southwest of Henderson, Caroline County. The house appears to be late nineteenth century in build.

The house construction is frame on a brick foundation and is presently covered in aluminum siding. The structure is rectangular shaped with a gable roof and a centrally located stove flue stack. The main facade (east elevation) is three bays with a three bay, one story fully enclosed porch on a block foundation. There is a central entrance on the porch, double windows to each side of the entrance, and single 1/1 pane sash windows on the sides of the porch. The main facade has a central entrance with 2/2 pane sash windows in the other bays. The gable ends have a single window on each story. The west elevation has a full length one story porch and two windows on the second story.
